THE HUMAN
"Human" that's not
a back, you say?
I claim the spot
of man who sold
Yoke strings to me
And four little ones
For the whole
New York, Paris,
London, Rome,
I've been told;
And those who buy
Must pay the price.
The sin is mine,
You don't say so?
I'll settle the lot
The summer and
The winter and
The spring and
The fall and
The whole year
They pay the bill.
And while I live,
I'll be the best
Like to be the best?
—John G. Jones.
